

Session numbers for evaluations are in front of title; e.g. A1

International Medical Volunteerism Conference 2010

Please see full session descriptions at www.emoryimvc.org

Friday, April 16 7:00pm – 10:00pm Opening Session: Keynote Presentations

Glenn Memorial Church 1700 N. Decatur Rd., Atlanta, GA 30322

Saturday, April 17 - Local and National Track – White Hall 201 Dowman Dr. Emory University, Atlanta, GA 30322					Saturday, April 17 - International Track – School of Medicine 1648 Pierce Dr., Emory University, Atlanta, GA 30322
	WH 205	WH 206	WH 207	WH 208		SOM 110	SOM 120	SOM 130	SOM A153
8:30am	A1 Health Education and Wellness		A4 Homeless Programs Hear about street medicine & expert insights into treating mental illness, teaching mindfulness, and "Mercy Care Services" for the homeless.	A6 Where to Begin: Tips on Getting Launched to Volunteer The nuts and bolts of preparing for missions, including malpractice, fund-raising, & securing supplies.	8:30am	B1 Community Empowerment & System Strengthening Strengthen communities, including Mayan Indians in Guatemala & Nicaragua, exiled Tibetan monks in India, Amazon riverbank people, orphans & street children in Africa, & collaboration between Israelis and Palestinians	B4 Teaching & Developing Infrastructure in Developing Countries Dedicated doctors share their experiences of reaching out around the world to teach the locals in developing countries how to save lives.	B7 Surgery Programs Efforts to close the gap in surgical skills between low and high income countries. Introduce new treatment of fistulas in African women; surgical challenges on battlefield in Sudan, Pakistan & Congo, etc.
10:00 am	Innovative approaches to community outreach include music for kids, athletic programs, community gardens, and costumed comedic presentations.	A2 Advocacy for Uninsured & Underinsured Patient Advocates & clinicians share their experiences.	A5 What Can Educational Institution Leadership Do to Encourage Volunteerism? Plant the seeds and encourage students to appreciate the joy of making a difference in their own community or around the world by saving the lives or preventing suffering of people who would otherwise be without care.	A7 Community Clinics Stories & insights from health care warriors tackling health care access problems in their own communities	11:00am	B2 Nursing & Pharmacy Programs A unique perspective on volunteer nursing & pharmaceutical activities in developing countries.				B5 Emergency, Trauma, & ER Programs Emergency care in Nigeria, teaching resuscitation on the streets of India, & setting up intensive care units in a third world countries, etc.	B8 Expanding Volunteer Efforts Innovative approaches to expanding mission opportunities by ship, by air, on land, or in cyberspace.	B10 Advocacy for Persons with Disabilities
11:00am		A3 Communications & Media Efforts From telemedicine to the cultural sensitivity issues in verbal communication, learn how to communicate and make a difference.											11:30am
11:30am													12:00pm
1:00pm					12:30pm
2:30pm					1:00pm
					2:00pm
					3:00pm
					4:00pm
4:30pm	G2 GENERAL SESSION: YOUR IDEAS ON HOW TO EXPAND MEDICAL & HEALTH VOLUNTEERISM 4:30 – 6 pm Glenn Memorial Church 1700 N. Decatur Rd., Atlanta, GA 30322
6:00 – 7:30pm	A8 Health Care Reform Televised roundtable
7:30 – 9:30pm	G3 TALENT SHOW: Medical Volunteerism's Got Talent! 7:30 – 9:30 pm Glenn Memorial Church 1700 N. Decatur Rd., Atlanta, GA 30322

Saturday 8:30 am – 4:00 pm		Exhibits	Sunday 9 am – 5:30 pm
Non-Profit Organization Exhibits
E1 International	School of Medicine - Commons (first floor)		1648 Pierce Dr., Emory University, Atlanta, GA 30322
E2 Local / National	White Hall - Lobby (main walk-in floor / 2 nd floor)		201 Dowman Dr., Emory University, Atlanta, GA
E3 Local / National	Math/Science - Atrium (lower level)		400 Dowman Dr. -- directly across the street from White Hall
Photo Exhibits
P1 Portraits on a Mission...A Skid Row Collaboration by Holly Tomlin			School of Medicine - Room A170
P2 Faces of Tibet...Rounding with the Flying Doctors --- Photos by Ed Wolkis			School of Medicine - Commons

Food Kiosks – 8am – 3pm

Math & Science Center
School of Medicine
Canon Chapel (kosher available)

Dobbs University Center (DUC) Cafeteria 10am – 8pm

(purchase $7 all-you-can-eat coupons at above kiosks, otherwise, the price at the door is about $10)

For more options, see list at:

http://www.emory.edu/dining/campus_dining.ph

Session numbers for evaluations are in front of title; e.g. C1

International Medical Volunteerism Conference 2010

Please see full session descriptions at www.emoryimvc.org

Sunday, April 18 - Local and National Track – White Hall 201 Dowman Dr. Emory University, Atlanta, GA 30322					Sunday, April 18 - International Track – School of Medicine 1648 Pierce Dr., Emory University, Atlanta, GA 30322
	WH 205	WH 206	WH 207	WH 208		SOM 110	SOM 120	SOM 130	SOM A153	Harland Cinema*
9:00am	C1 Dental Health Programs Hear unique stories on getting dental care to those in need, through mission trips to remote villages on the Amazon River, in Alaska, & Vietnam, or inner city Atlanta communities. Hear about a dentist's mission trips to teach non-dentists to perform certain dental treatments.	C2 Hospice Volunteer Programs Personal experiences, including former CNN SciNews head, who created an end-of-life documentary.	C5 Mental Health in America's Youth A police officer & Michael Jordan educate inner-city kids; teaching medicine to at-risk kids; alternative help for kids with depression	C8 Volunteering in Your Own Community – Opportunities and Ideas for Medical & Lay People A smorgasbord of stories, from doctors who provide free heart surgery & lung transplants to a lay retiree who reads to sick kids.	9:00am	D1 Sustaining Volunteer Efforts Gain insights into innovation that helps volunteers have a lasting impact on the health of the community they serve	D4 Pediatric Programs This group of doctors, nurses, and dentists give insights into the challenges and triumphs of volunteering pediatric services in the Middle East, Latin America, Africa, and Mongolia. Their efforts include screening for prevention intervention, providing primary care services, and treating children who require complicated surgical intervention.	D6 Cultural Sensitivity & Ethical Responsibility Don't do more harm than good; cross-cultural issues include social, economic, ethnic, religious, education & language
11:00am		C3 Getting the Family on Board (session repeats at 1:00 in SOM A153 with limited seating)	C6 Mental Health Programs Innovative programs include therapeutic gardens in Alzheimer's day facility, sensitizing the brain toward environmental concerns, using street-based & radio outreach, etc. to address disorders including substance abuse, dementia, & Tourette's Syndrome		10:00am						11:00am
12:00pm		C4 Advocacy for Patients during a Crisis of Care Hear doctors, advocacy organizers, and patients / survivors	C9 Hospital Volunteer Programs Teens, retired folks, & volunteer coordinators talk about opportunities.		12:00pm						D2 Public Health Programs Volunteer efforts from Cambodia to S. Africa, Uganda to Nicaragua, result in clean water, sanitation, screenings and educating about health problems, etc
12:30pm		C7 Disaster Preparedness & Response Inspiring stories of Americans helping Americans during disasters including 9/11, the anthrax outbreak in D.C., & Hurricane Katrina		1:00pm	D3 Geography Breakout: Africa	D5 Geo. Breakout: Latin America & Caribbean	D8 Geography Breakout: Asia & Middle East
2:00pm				2:00pm
					2:30pm
					3:00pm
					3:30pm
4:00pm – 5:30pm				C10 FINAL WRAP UP: Launching Next Year's Conference/Celebration	4:00pm – 5:30pm

Saturday 8:30 am – 4:00 pm		Exhibits	Sunday 9 am – 5:30 pm
Non-Profit Organization Exhibits
E1 International	School of Medicine - Commons (first floor)		1648 Pierce Dr., Emory University, Atlanta, GA 30322
E2 Local / National	White Hall - Lobby (main walk-in floor / 2nd floor)		201 Dowman Dr., Emory University, Atlanta, GA 30322
E3 Local / National	Math/Science - Atrium (lower level)		400 Dowman Dr. -- directly across the street from White Hall
Photo Exhibits
P1 Portraits on a Mission...A Skid Row Collaboration by Holly Tomlin			School of Medicine - Room A170
P2 Faces of Tibet...Rounding with the Flying Doctors --- Photos by Ed Wolkis			School of Medicine - Commons

*Harland Cinema is in the Dobbs University Center (DUC) -- 605 Asbury Circle, Atlanta, GA 30322

*across the street & to the right when you go out the main entrance of the School of Medicine, there is an outside door leading directly into Harland Cinema